Our Friends

Greetings from the Friends of Sarasota County Parks

This special edition of the Friends News is about one thing, really. The folks at Sarasota County Parks and Recreation have a brand new page on Facebook, and they aim to gather a thousand or more LIKES in the next two weeks. Won't you help? Click here, then click LIKE. That's it.

You'll be glad you did, because once you do, you'll see the latest events, news, resources and educational activities provided by one of the best parks and rec departments in the nation. As one who cares about parks, you'll find this a valuable resource. Here it is again -- it only takes a sec. You can even click on the pink flamingos to get

USRowing Masters Race Aug. 15-18

We're a week away from the USRowing Masters National Championships, coming next weekend to Nathan Benderson. For information on the races and race results, you'll find updated info with the latest links here. And volunteer coordinator John Krotec has updated logistics info for all those coming out to help -- a must read -- here.

More Amazing Ringling Volunteers

Terry Redman says:

"On August 17 we will have Ringling Students at Caspersen Beach, Manasota Beach and the Hermitage, removing exotic/invasive plants and doing general clean-up.

"We will be there from 9 to noon and all other volunteers are welcome to join in the fun. Call Terry at 468-2222 if you are interested in participating -- pizza/drinks will be provided."

Thank You

Thanks for all you do. Don't forget to send us your Friends of the Parks Chapter updates, news, events, and plans.

Consider joining Terry and the Ringlingers on the 17th.

And by all means, help Sarasota County Parks and Rec meet their goal on Facebook.

Sincerely,

Friends of Sarasota County Parks, Inc.
